Before an allocation can be confirmed (for those paying by cash), receipt of an initial deposit of 40% of the total cost of the house must be paid. There after, 40% to be paid at roofing level and a final 20% before handing over of keys.

We are working in partnership with Credit Foncier du Cameroun (CFC) who can provide mortgages to qualified resident and non resident Cameroonians. To apply to CFC you must open a savings/current account with one of their agencies through which your initial deposit can be made and the eventual settlement of the loan.

We will confirm your allocation at such time when we have received their facility letter confirming their agreement to provide mortgage finance.
